the brand

We've created MAYLILY to bring innovation and beauty into baby & children textile products market. The company was established in 2012 and with production located in Poland has been delivering excellent quality products to its customers around the world since then.

inspiration

With the birth of our first daughter Helena, the idea to start the company came. Our three daughters are an inexhaustible source of ideas and inspire us each day to develop new products. As well, our customers give us the power to work and create.

responsibility

we care

Care for every detail in production process and strict quality control let us deliver with confidence that each customer is fully satisfied with the purchase.

We use only safe fabrics and components from trustworthy suppliers of which the majority produces in Poland.

stories

hand knitted

MAYLILY's knitted collection is hand made in Poland by our team of wonderful women who put a lot of love in every single piece they make.

stories

merino wool

Our merino wool products are a recent hit – natural, soft, and highly desired by parents. We use extra fine merino wool, certified and sourced responsibly.

bamboo

We love bamboo fabrics and the majority of our products are made of them. Baby skin needs the gentlest touch and this is what bamboo fabric gives.
